JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 24 January 1962

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

staff of the Military Operations Subcommittee of House Government Operations Committee, concerning Ha advised That she can take shorthand in Spanish, Frenchand German. Personnel will look into the case further. 2. Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) telephoned saying that a friend of his had urged that the Director see who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavanner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavanner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoena but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Rendall, of the Senate Preparedness investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representa- tive Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insernuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-			anna araba da Jahan Communities, concerning that she can take shorthand in Spanish, Frenchand German. 2. Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) telephoned saying that a friend of his had urged that the Director see who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subposna but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparadness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personnel friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcom- mittee. Since his with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representa- tive Francis E. Walter, that had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insemuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	1.
that she can take sherthand in Spanish, Frenchand German. Personnel will look into the case further. 2. Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) telephoned saying that a friend of his had urged that the Director see who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoena but I STA ashed him to wait until we talked with him farther. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Rendall, of the Senate Proparadness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since his known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insemuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-
Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) selephoned saying that a friend of his had urged that the Director see who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavanner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA saked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparadness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Genemanism. This request apparently resulted from close STA persenal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcom- mittee. Since his known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Persennel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representa- tive Francis E. Walter, that had been rejected by our Medinal Office for employment inasmuch as he had been rejected by our Medinal Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	Operations Committee,	concerning		TAT
Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) telephoned saying that a friend of his had urged that the Director see who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparadness investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personnel friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representa- tive Francis E. Walter, that In whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-			an. Personnel who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavanner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he affered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Praparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insernuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	will look into the case	further.
who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavanner. HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him farther. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Rendall, of the Senate Preparadness investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. STA Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insernuch as he had had three very serious operations, the must recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	2.	Representative Bob Wils	on (R., Calif.)
who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him farther. 4. FOD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from closs STA personal friendship with Colonal Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insernuch as he had had three very serious operations, the must recent in 1951, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	telephoned saying that	a friend of his had urged that the D	drector see
to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavanner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavanner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Rendall, of the Senate Preparadness investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from closs STA personnal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since his known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that his had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very cerious operations, the must recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	who will b	e in Washington on Friday, 26 Janu	sary. I indicated Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he affered to subpoons but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him farther. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Rendall, of the Senate Preparadness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. STA 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the must recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-
Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoons but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him farther. 4. FDD, telephoned STA stating he had received a letter signed by James Rendall, of the Senate Preparadness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. STA 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the must recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compliconcerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens	3.	Talked with Frank	Tavenner, HCUA, HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4	HCUA. At this point.	Tavenner said that they could not i	deatify any
4				ТΔТ
Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. STA 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel. I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-				1/\1 reparators Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from
Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from				TAT
Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from	stating he had received	d a letter signed by James Kendall,	of the Senste
personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since	Prestroduess lavestig	ating Subcommittee staff, requestly	ng any contribution personal friendship with Colone! Martell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. STA 5 After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the must recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-			ica to the dangers	- ^ - personal friendship with Colone! Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since	of Communism. This	request apparently resulted from		IAI discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond and if there were any difficulties to let me know. 5. After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel. I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment insenuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	personal friendship wi	th Colonel Hartell, who is on the st	taff of the Subcom-
After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	mittee. Since	is known to Hartell as CIA, I sug	gested
After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	discuss this with Harte	ell explaining that, of course, he c	ould not respond
After talking with the Medical Office and Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	and if there were any	difficulties to let me know.	S	TAT
Personnel, I verbally advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the office of Representative Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	• tive Francis E. Walter, that in whom they were interested, STA had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-had been rejected by our Medical Office for employment inasmuch as he had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	Personnel, I verbally	advised Mrs. Hagenbuch, in the of	lice of Representa-
had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-				TAT
had had three very serious operations, the most recent in 1961, but that we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	had been rejected by o	ur Medical Office for employment	insernach as he
we would be willing to reconsider him, if a suitable vacancy existed, if, after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	had had three very set	rious operations, the most recent i	n 1961, but that after a year from the date of this last surgery, there had been no compli-	we would be willing to	reconsider him, if a suitable vaca	incy exteted, if,
	after a year from the	date of this last surgery, there had	been no compli-rejected.	cations. Personnel is	writing toto advise him !		TAT

CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY